

Director 1 – Ed Halligan

February 2010

12/30 – Visit with Hotel representatives for state 2011 convention

01/18 - Re-visit Hotel with members of the State Board

01/26 - Met with the Ladies AOH representative at the potential 2011 convention site

01/31 - Attended Division #87 benefit to help a family burnt out of their home on New Year's Eve

- Attended Division #39 benefit for Breast Cancer

- Attended Division #61 and the Philadelphia County Board benefit to raise money for flags in the newly established Veterans Court in Philadelphia

Either this morning or After today's meeting I hope to meet with the Ladies' State President concerning our 2011 convention site

- attend an event at Division #1 in Montgomery County and

- if enough time stop in at the Project Children Fund Raiser sponsored by Division #6 of Bucks County and held at Division #1 of Bucks County

Tomorrow I hope that many of you from the Philadelphia area will join with me and several of our Brother and sister Hibernians at the Mayfair Community Center to raise money to support the Philadelphia St. Patrick's Day Parade. Seamus Boyle will be the Grand Marshal and his Ring of Honor includes our own Tom Meehan

Pennsylvania State Convention - July 2011

We are just now going through the details, but it does look like we will be meeting at the Dolce Hotel in Valley Forge, PA.

The hotel is a couple of miles from the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the Schuylkill Expressway

The State Boards will be reviewing the contract and putting together a venue. We should have more info by the time we meet again

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Respectfully submitted,
Ed Halligan